NY artist Archie Rand takes on Torah's 613 commandments

Archie Rand's The 613 is truly unique. Not only is it visually stunning--the images are so vivid that they practically pop off the page--it is almost absurdly (or perhaps biblically) ambitious in its scope. The 613 Jewish commandments are each rendered in mid 20th century comic book/pulp fiction glory.

The 613 by Archie Rand. (Blue Rider Press, 640 pp. $45) The Ten Commandments are familiar to most and some may know of the seven Noahide laws, but in the hierarchy of biblical lists, the 613 mitzvot—a catalog of commandments taken by scholars from the five books of the Torah—is a relative unknown. This inventory of mitzvot is the subject of "The 613," artist Archie Rand's series of 20-by-16-inch painted panels, one per commandment.
