This is the 77th Rupert annual and features stories focusing on holidays and adventure. Adventure is a core element in many Rupert stories - but somehow the little bear always makes it home from his journeys in time for tea! In Stuart Trotter's new story for the annual, Rupert and his mummy take a holiday by the sea.

Rupert Bear is a children's comic strip character created by British artist Mary Tourtel and first appearing in the Daily Express newspaper on 8 November 1920. Rupert's initial purpose was to win sales from the rival Daily Mail and Daily Mirror. In 1935, the stories were taken over by Alfred Bestall, who was previously an illustrator for Punch and other glossy magazines.
