Contents[show] Featured article The Fairchild F611 Brigand is fast, has surprising agility, and impressive armament. It has a reputation as reliable and effective, but has a poor fuel economy, due to its fuel injection system, and quirky handling, due to its heavy engine. In addition, the Brigand has a mediocre acceleration, allowing it to be easily picked off by faster planes. Featured media ...

Crimson Skies is a 4:3 aspect ratio (non-widescreen) game. The Csfix file, however, lets the game run in any resolution of your choosing. If you leave this as the default, the game will simply run at the highest available resolution. Since this is a widescreen resolution on most modern PCs, the game will appear stretched out of proportion.
