Evangelical Theology An Introduction

Evangelical Theology is a wonderful reflection on theology and the theologian. It is better to know about perfect love than not to know about it. And yet, it is impossible to speak "about" God, as if he can be left in the third person and unaware of it. One can only speak "toward" God. Thus one must direct theology both to humans and to God.

Agape”. — Karl Barth, Evangelical Theology: An Introduction. 1 likes. Like. “Theology can be useful only when it does not retreat from the divine judgment that accompanies the work of all men, but, instead unreservedly exposes and submits itself to this judgment. Only by not rejecting or resisting the threat that encounters it, but, instead, acknowledging it propriety, reconciling itself to it, and enduring and bearing it, can theology become useful.”.
