Forgotten Realms Ambientazione

Aberrations were creatures that were unnatural and had unconventional morphologies. These creatures did not fit into the natural world. Though some believed aberrations originated from the Far Realm, this was not true for all aberrations. Driders, for example, were unnatural crosses between drow and spiders. Created by the twisted goddess Lolth, the drow had their bodies aberrantly transformed ...

The Forgotten Realms world of Abeir-Toril is but one of several other worlds in the Realmspace crystal sphere. To the natives of Faerûn, the wildspace above their heads is known as the Sea of Night. The two closest worlds to the sun in the middle of Realmspace are known as the Dawn Heralds, and they are barely visible only at sunset or sunrise.
