These four living creatures closely resemble the four creatures described in Ezekiel 1:10 and Isaiah 6:2. It is not clear whether these passages are describing the same four living creatures, but it is very likely they are of the same exalted order of angels, whose main job is to worship God and speak His holiness (Revelation 19:4).

The four living creatures in Revelation - Who are they?

The four living creatures (literally "beings") are a special, exalted order of angelic being or cherubim. This is clear by their close proximity to the throne of God. Ezekiel 1:12-20 suggests that they are in constant motion around the throne. Revelation 5:6-14 describes the duties or purposes of the four living creatures.

The four living creatures in Revelation - Who are they? where He offers a perennial witness to himself (CCC 288). 2 Through creatures God manifests himself to people of all times, making his goodness and perfections known. Among these creatures the human being, being the image and likeness of God, is the creature that most fully reveals Him.

Topic 2: Revelation 1. God's revelation of himself to mankind

The apostle John wrote, "Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under its wings. Day and night they never stop saying: "'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty," who was, and is, and is to come" (Revelation 4:8). The word "creature" in the above verse does not indicate to what order of creatures these four beings belong.

Nevertheless, God does not conceal Himself, but rather reveals Himself to mankind. His revelation is a declaration of divine nature, divine truth, and divine will, and is to be seen as a sign of God's love and care for mankind. When we speak of God's "self-revelation" we understand that God grants human beings insights into His nature.
