The War has been over for 10 years now, the glory of victory having slipped through the fingers of The Crown. It was a bitter conflict between men alone, the first war of this magnitude that pit human against human. A relative calm now reigns, despite the vice-like grip of the occupying soldiers of the Asquith Alliance. The forces of The Crown have been toppled, it's barony's armies routed and humiliated.

Before the Exodus of the Gods, the Six Human Gods gifted human royalty with a magical crown and a pair of magical swords—Magdaer and Sohothin—which could be used in a ritual to cast a powerful spell to protect the kingdom from invasion. To safeguard the crown from falling into the wrong hands, it was designed to break into four parts so that the fragments would be hard to see if they were ever separated.
