One Night of Trouble is a mostly very good book about two complex characters confined by their families' expectations, and in the case of AJ, his own. The romance is sweet and satisfying, but is only the catalyst that causes AJ to reevaluate himself and his role in his own life. Brett, the heroine,

After a beat, he gave a sheepish grin. “Fine. I haven’t had a lot of one-night stands. But...” His eyes burned. “I have a feeling not going home with you tonight would be the biggest mistake of my life.” She didn’t have time to absorb that intense answer, because suddenly he was touching her. Holy hell.
