Sweetblood - Wikipedia

Sweetblood was published in 2003. I love being a writer for many reasons. But wealth, fame and adulation are no longer at the top of the list. That is fortunate for me, as I have enjoyed little enough of all three. Yes, sadly, I lied: I'm not really wealthy, nor am I worshipped by billions. Half a dozen, maybe--if you include my dogs.

Hautman paints a true-to-life portrait of a bitter, cynical teen who undergoes a gradual transformation as he makes discoveries about Gaia, his father, and himself. Stiggy's many mishaps (being left carless after falling for a lie, getting cornered into buying meth supplies) provide comic relief, while his epiphanies offer food for thought.
